Introduction

The Local Authorities Pension Plan was established effective April 1, 1962, by the Local Authorities Pension Act to provide a contributory pension scheme for employees of local authorities in Alberta. Local authorities include cities, towns, counties, municipal districts, hospitals, school divisions and districts, and other public bodies in Alberta, approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

The Local Authorities Pension Act was repealed on November 1, 1985, and replaced by the Local Authorities Pension Plan Act. Under the new legislation, policy and administration became the responsibility of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and the Minister respectively, while the Local Authorities Pension Plan Board was assigned an advisory and appellate role.

Plan Overview

The Local Authorities Pension Plan is a contributory defined benefit plan. Since January 1, 1989, employee contributions have been at a rate of 4.375 percent of basic salary, up to the year's maximum pensionable earnings under the Canada Pension Plan, and 6.25 percent on any excess. The employer contributes at a rate one percent higher than the rate of the employee contributions. The net amount of pension contributions less payments is deposited to or withdrawn from the Pension Fund pursuant to the Pension Fund Act. The income of the Pension Fund accrues to and forms part of the Fund. The Government of Alberta guarantees the payment of all benefits under the Local Authorities Pension Plan.

Members may retire at any time after age 55 if they have accumulated five years of pensionable service. Normal pensionable age is 65, but members may also retire on an unreduced pension at any time after age 55 providing that pensionable service plus age totals not less than 85. There is no mandatory retirement age. Pension benefits are based on the number of years of pensionable service multiplied by 1.4

percent of salary up to the maximum pensionable earnings under the Canada Pension Plan and two percent of the excess salary. Salary is calculated as the highest average pensionable earnings for five consecutive years. If the member has a spouse, unless a waiver is signed by the spouse, the pension must be a joint pension guaranteed for the life of the member and spouse. The normal form of pension is for the life of the member with a five year guarantee period. Single members may elect a life pension, a normal pension, or a 10, 15 or 20 year guarantee period. They may also elect a joint life pension based on their life and that of a nominee.

The Plan also makes provision for those members who die prior to retirement and have accumulated at least five years of pensionable service. In such cases the surviving spouse is entitled to either a spousal pension or a lump sum benefit. The spousal pension is equal to the survivor benefit of a non-reduced joint life pension. A beneficiary other than a spouse must accept a lump sum benefit.

Review of Operations

The Local Authorities Pension Plan is administered by the Payroll and Pensions Division of Alberta Treasury.

In order to increase efficiency and improve service to employers and participants, Payroll and Pensions continues to upgrade its automated systems. Enhanced prior service, data input and participant record keeping systems were developed to improve information gathering and accommodate policy and procedural changes.

Pension forms were completely redesigned and master copies of each form have been provided to employers. By allowing the production of forms as required, stockpiling and wastage occasioned by form changes are eliminated.

Actuarial Liabilities

An independent actuarial valuation carried out at March 31, 1988, estimated the accrued liability of the Local Authorities Pension Plan to be $3,854,614,000. The normal actuarial cost of the plan as a percentage of payroll was estimated at 13.4 percent.

Participation

At March 31, 1990, there were 489 employers participating in the Local Authorities Pension Plan, 79,684 active contributors and 5,133 terminated employees who had either not made a choice regarding their plan status or were awaiting a deferred pension.

A summary of the types of participating employers and the number of participants is provided in the section on Contributions.
